

Through the efforts of our dedicated Pro Bono team, our Summer Associates. . .

- Assisted pro bono client Women’s World Banking, a nonprofit organization that expands the economic assets, participation and power of low-income women and their households by helping them access financial services, knowledge and markets.
- Worked with pro bono client Alliance to Save Energy, a nonprofit coalition of business, government, environmental and consumer leaders that promotes energy efficiency worldwide to achieve a healthier economy, a cleaner environment and greater energy security.
- Reviewed trade names and trademarks for pro bono client International Kids Fund. International Kids Fund is a nonprofit, philanthropic program committed to helping critically ill children primarily from Latin America and the Caribbean gain immediate access to essential medical treatments that are unavailable in their respective home countries.
- Assisted pro bono client Acumen Fund, a nonprofit global venture fund that uses entrepreneurial approaches to solve the problems of global poverty.
- Advocated for children with learning disabilities and helped them obtain the educational services they are rightfully entitled to through special education cases at Volunteer Lawyers for Justice.
- Secured an uncontested divorce for a low-income woman through inMotion’s Summer Associate Program. InMotion offers hope to low-income women who need free legal services in matrimonial, family and immigration law.
- Obtained a legal name change for a transgendered client through the Transgender Legal Defense and Education Fund’s Name Change Project. The Name Change Project ensures that transgendered individuals have adequate support and representation in legally changing their names as a first step towards realizing the way in which they wish to live their lives.
- Represented and performed intakes of juveniles from Central America who travel dangerous distances to the US and are under threat of deportation. One team of summers assisted an eighteen-year-old girl from Guatemala who witnessed gang violence in her community and amongst her friends.
- Conducted research for, and drafted portions of, a briefing paper on family planning information and services for pro bono client The Center for Reproductive Rights. The Center for Reproductive Rights is a nonprofit legal advocacy organization that defends women’s reproductive rights worldwide.

In this document, White & Case means the international legal practice comprising White & Case LLP, a New York State registered limited liability partnership, White & Case LLP, a limited liability partnership incorporated under English law and all other affiliated partnerships, corporations and undertakings.