General Hiring Criteria We seek to hire students who demonstrate strong academics, excellent verbal and written communication skills, teamwork, initiative and leadership ability along with a commitment to practice law in a global and diverse setting. We are interested in interviewing students who want to spend their legal careers in the US as well as students who would like to eventually transfer overseas. Fluency in languages other than English is a plus (including Arabic, French, Japanese, Mandarin, Portuguese, Russian and Spanish).

Organization Narrative

Together we make a mark. We are a truly global firm, with an international network that most firms can only dream of. It's the reason many of our global clients choose to work with us, and why they trust us with their most challenging and complex, cross-border matters. As an associate, this means you will be an integral member of the teams that span the entirety of a matter—not just the work in one jurisdiction—and experience the international nature of the work. We serve our clients through a global organization comprised of a wide range of practices and industry groups staffed by diverse teams. Our talented and committed lawyers represent 94 nationalities and speak 90 languages. This depth and breadth of experience and diversity of perspective in our teams is vital to our ability to effectively find creative solutions and represent clients throughout the world, and is one of the reasons we receive the top ranking for diversity year after year. Our associates work as part of a team of global citizens in a fast-paced, collaborative environment. Lawyers who join our firm find themselves part of an open, collegial culture where innovation, teamwork, and entrepreneurial spirit are valued. This open-door approach fosters strong working relationships across our 43 offices worldwide. From day one, our lawyers find that they do intellectually challenging work on complex and innovative deals and cases with talented colleagues from all over the globe, each committed to becoming the best at what they do and committed to the success of the team. Driven by our culture of apprenticeship, we train and guide our associates to succeed in every aspect of their career development. Our clients include two-thirds of the Global Fortune 100 and half the Fortune 500, as well as start-up visionaries, governments and state-owned entities. We are proud of our achievements—revenue of more than US$1.8 billion, 43 practices rated Band 1 in Chambers Global, top ranked for diversity and pro bono programs— but we will not rest on our laurels. In 2015, we launched an ambitious five-year growth strategy that will strengthen our position as a top-of-mind firm for global clients—and an employer of choice for top talent. This combination of strength and ambition means exciting career opportunities: international and cutting-edge work throughout your career, and experience that will benefit you wherever your career journey takes you. If you're ambitious, committed to excellence and interested in teamwork and collaboration, we'd like to hear from you.
