

Electric storage as percentage of total installed capacity for selected countries

Source: The percentages represent shares of electric storage installed capacity relative to total installed in each country. The capacity year of each reported varies between 2017 and 2018 based on data sources. The reported years of Australia, China and the UK are based on 2017, while those of the US and Germany are based on 2018.