

CURRENT APPROACHES USED BY SPECIFIC BENCHMARKS

Corporate Human Rights Benchmark

200 Large listed companies in Agriculture, Apparel, Extractives and Information & Communications Technology/Technology Manufacturing sectors

6 Themes
50 Indicators per company
5 Levels within each indicator
66% of CHRB-benchmarked companies engaged with the CHRB during the research cycle

LOOKING AHEAD:

- Adding automotive sector
- Updating methodologies for all sectors
- The CHRB is in the process of becoming part of the WBA
- Next rankings to be published in 2020

KnowTheChain

121 Large listed companies in Apparel & Footwear, Food & Beverage and Information & Communications Technology sectors

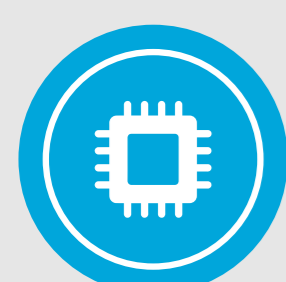

7 Themes
23 Indicators per company
77% of KTC-benchmarked companies engaged with KTC during the research cycle

LOOKING AHEAD:

- More companies to be assessed (181)
- Updating methodologies for all sectors
- Next rankings to be published in 2020/2021

Ranking Digital Rights

24 Internet, mobile ecosystem and telecommunications companies

35 Indicators per company
54% of RDR-benchmarked companies engaged with RDR during the research cycle

LOOKING AHEAD:

- Adding more companies (for example, global platforms with core e-commerce businesses)
- Updating methodologies (human rights harms associated with targeted advertising and algorithmic decision-making systems)
- Next rankings to be published in 2021

BankTrack

50 Large private commercial banks

14 Indicators per company
58% of BankTrack-benchmarked companies engaged with BankTrack during the research cycle

LOOKING AHEAD:

- Next rankings to be published in 2021/2020