De-SPAC M&A activity

There have been 31 De-SPAC deals targeting European assets in the year to the end of July 2021.

Disclosed De-SPAC deal value for the year-to-date is US$16.5bn close to treble the annual total recorded in 2020.

US remains the most active jurisdiction in De-SPAC deals, but international players are closing the gap.

SPAC IPO activity

26 European SPACs raised US$6.58bn on European stock exchanges over the first half of 2021.

De-SPAC deals targeting European assets.

Disclosed De-SPAC deal value for the year-to-date is US$16.5bn close to treble the annual total recorded in 2020.

US remains the most active jurisdiction in De-SPAC deals, but international players are closing the gap.

There have been 31 De-SPAC deals targeting European assets in the year to the end of July 2021.

Disclosed De-SPAC deal value for the year-to-date is US$16.5bn close to treble the annual total recorded in 2020.

US remains the most active jurisdiction in De-SPAC deals, but international players are closing the gap.

Dutch sponsors are the most active European SPAC issuers by volume and value, ahead of France and Luxembourg.

Amsterdam is currently the most popular stock exchange for European sponsors accounting for 36.5% of SPAC volume for the year-to-date.

There have been 31 De-SPAC deals targeting European assets in the year to the end of July 2021.

Disclosed De-SPAC deal value for the year-to-date is US$16.5bn close to treble the annual total recorded in 2020.

US remains the most active jurisdiction in De-SPAC deals, but international players are closing the gap.

Dutch sponsors are the most active European SPAC issuers by volume and value, ahead of France and Luxembourg.

Amsterdam is currently the most popular stock exchange for European sponsors accounting for 36.5% of SPAC volume for the year-to-date.

There have been 31 De-SPAC deals targeting European assets in the year to the end of July 2021.

Disclosed De-SPAC deal value for the year-to-date is US$16.5bn close to treble the annual total recorded in 2020.

US remains the most active jurisdiction in De-SPAC deals, but international players are closing the gap.

Dutch sponsors are the most active European SPAC issuers by volume and value, ahead of France and Luxembourg.

Amsterdam is currently the most popular stock exchange for European sponsors accounting for 36.5% of SPAC volume for the year-to-date.

There have been 31 De-SPAC deals targeting European assets in the year to the end of July 2021.

Disclosed De-SPAC deal value for the year-to-date is US$16.5bn close to treble the annual total recorded in 2020.

US remains the most active jurisdiction in De-SPAC deals, but international players are closing the gap.

Dutch sponsors are the most active European SPAC issuers by volume and value, ahead of France and Luxembourg.

Amsterdam is currently the most popular stock exchange for European sponsors accounting for 36.5% of SPAC volume for the year-to-date.

There have been 31 De-SPAC deals targeting European assets in the year to the end of July 2021.

Disclosed De-SPAC deal value for the year-to-date is US$16.5bn close to treble the annual total recorded in 2020.

US remains the most active jurisdiction in De-SPAC deals, but international players are closing the gap.

Dutch sponsors are the most active European SPAC issuers by volume and value, ahead of France and Luxembourg.

Amsterdam is currently the most popular stock exchange for European sponsors accounting for 36.5% of SPAC volume for the year-to-date.